

10th National Coop Summit

10-10-10 was very significant to primary coops, coop members and to the whole cooperative industry...

The 10th National Coop Summit which was hosted by Philippine Cooperative Center (PCC), Cooperative Development Authority (CDA) and the Local Government of Quezon City ended triumphantly. The event was held at Araneta Center, Quezon City.

The summit was graced by none other than, His Excellency, Pres. Benigno S. Aquino III.

This year's theme "Towards a Shared Vision: One Coop Movement, One Vision, One Nation" aptly highlighted that cooperative movements can enhance the economic growth of the country. The current economic crisis increased the search for viable solutions to economic hardships hence, people are looking for other ways to do business and save money. In this context, co-operatives have become a sign of resistance and hope.

Participants acclaimed the Summit a success based on the thousands of participants and the presentations from both Philippine and foreign resource persons. Among the presentors were two former VICTO executive officers Edgar Comeros and Audie Joseph Samson.

The said event was attended by the PCF Board Chair, Zenaida Novabos, Vice-chair N. Apuhin, Dir. L. Canalija, PCF CEO B. Salera, PCF staff D. Casuno and A. Gonzales.
